

Alesie from the Caribbean to several other origins

- Early 70's first Alesie rice mill build in Nickerie, Surinam
- 1980 is the rice industry in Guyana was privatized. Alesie Group invested in 4 rice mills
- Rice mill build in Curacao – OCT Route – as first supplier to EU of duty free rice thanks to Lome agreement for overseas countries and territories
- In 1997 opening of warehousing and distribution in the Caribbean in countries like Trinidad, Jamaica and Haiti.
- 1998 Joint-Venture with than one of the world's largest commodity traders Andre & Cie Switzerland (West Indian Commodities N.V.)
- Years 1999/2000 number one exporter of rice from Guyana and Suriname
- Extending our network to Thailand and Pakistan – close cooperation with Thai Government in introduction of Hom Mali Rice to the E.U.
- Activating Alesie Food Holland BV in 2001 as service office to customers in the E.U.
- Parboiled rice factory opened in Surinam 2013 in cooperation with Dutch Ministry of Foreign affairs www.parboiledproducers.com
- Parboiled rice factory established in Cambodia 2015 'Asian Parboiled Rice Producers Co Ltd'
- Since 2016 also in canesugar , palmsugar , rice bran oil and milkpowder
- 2019 own representative office in Myanmar for rice export and import of organic fertilizer
- Alesie Food Holland B.V. as reliable supplier of rice with low overhead and assisting the Groups source production at several origins with distributing end products to retailers in the Netherlands

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands

Alesie Group of Companies with actual presence in Surinam – Guyana – Cambodia – Myanmar
(three generations of rice knowledge in production and trade)

close cooperations in Pakistan & Vietnam